

BACKSTABBERS

If you felt a sharp stab in the back early Saturday morning, you were not alone. At 3:30 a.m. on July 27th, the U.S. House of Representatives shoved a knife between the ribs of every American worker when it approved the final version of Fast Track legislation by a narrow 215-212 vote.

The final Fast Track vote count:

	For	Against
Democrats	25	183
Republicans	190	27
Independents		2
Total	215	212

A switch of only two votes would have protected working families from the ravages of the next NAFTA-like trade deal. So, when the next wave of lay-offs come, just remember who twisted the knife in your back as you slept last Saturday morning:

The 25 Democrats Who Voted for Fast Track

Ken Bentsen (TX)
Brad Carson (OK)
Susan Davis (CA)
Jim Davis (FL)
Norm Dicks (WA)
Calvin Dooley (CA)
Bob Etheridge (NC)
Harold Ford (TN)*
Ralph Hall (TX)

Jane Harman (CA)*
Baron Hill (IN)
Ruben Hinojosa (TX)
William Jefferson (LA)
Chris John (LA)
Richard Larsen (WA)*
Ken Lucas (KY)
James Matheson (UT)
Dennis Moore (KS)

James Moran (VA)
Ike Skelton (MO)
Adam Smith (WA)*
Vic Snyder (AR)
Charles Stenholm (TX)
John Tanner (TN)
Ellen Tauscher (CA)*

The five Democrats in bold switched their votes. They voted against an earlier Fast Track bill. On Saturday morning, they voted in favor of Fast Track bill. Their votes provided President Bush with his narrow margin of victory. And their votes could cost you your job.
